A guide to the collection

SCOPE

This separate Lifestyle & Living edition includes all nine company folders in the supplied collection. Buyer categories organise the range into home and daily living, kitchen and outdoors, family and play, jewellery, and pet care.

SOURCE MATERIAL

Company introductions and imagery are adapted from 14 supplied PDF files. Each company entry links to its Google Drive source folder, including any additional product catalogues. Event information and page design follow the completed KBEE 2026 Beauty and Food & Beverage editions.

PRODUCT SELECTION

Products shown are representative selections from supplier materials. Some companies also appear in other editions; they are retained here to reflect this supplied collection. Category headings are editorial groupings.

BUYER CONSULTATIONS

Availability, specifications, packaging and commercial terms can be discussed with each supplier. Descriptions summarise the supplied portfolios; product claims are not independent endorsements.
